

McKeones Capture the HCP Better-Ball of Partners

July 8 and 2018...The father and son team of Guy and Matt McKeone took the 2018 Henry Clay Poe Better-Ball of Partners tournament with a two-day score of 137, three under par. They overtook the first-round leaders, Matt Hadley and Chris Martin, who shot three-under-par 67 on Saturday. Another father and son team, Dave and Alex Seelig, finished second at 138.

Don Evans and Ron Miller won the Net Flight with a 20-under-par score of 120. Bill Haas and Tom Walker finished second at 124, 16 under par.

The tournament's namesake replaced Byron Nelson as RCC's head professional in 1940. Nelson left for the head professional job at Inverness Country Club, Toledo. Poe is RCC's longest-tenured professional, serving until 1964.

Gross Flight

1. Guy McKeone and Matt McKeone 67 – 70—137
2. Dave Seelig and Alex Seelig 70 – 68—138
3. Matt Hadley and Chris Martin 67 – 73—140
4. Greg Galtere and Blayne Hoffert 70 – 74—144
5. Greg Kleinert and Mark Higgins 73 – 72—145
6. Tim Daley and Byron Whitman 75 – 72—147

Net Flight

1. Don Evans and Ronald Miller 63 – 57—120
2. Tom Walker and Bill Haas 60 – 64—124
3. Bobby Porch and Scott Fick 57 – 68—125
4. Frank Falzone and Tuan Duong 64 – 62—126
5. Seth Eaton and Joey Frongillo 62 – 68—130
6. Todd Haines and Drew Eckel 67 – 69—136
7. Bob Protheroe and Jeff Antolic 69 – 69—138

2018 Henry Clay Poe
Gross Flight		Net Flight
Guy McKeone	Matt McKeone	67	70 137 -3
Dave Seelig	Alex Seelig	70	68 138 -2
Matt Hadley	Chris Martin	67	73 140 E
Greg Galtere	Blayne Hoffert	70	74 144 +4
Greg Kleinert	Mark Higgins	73	72 145 +5
Tim Daley	Byron Whitman	75	72 147 +7
C.T.P.#4	Seth Eaton	C.T.P.#4 Matt McKeone
C.T.P.#6	Greg Galtere	C.T.P.#6 Mark Higgins
C.T.P.#8	Frank Falzone	C.T.P.#8 Alex Seelig
C.T.P.#10	Alex Seelig	C.T.P.#10 Matt Hadley
C.T.P.#15	Bill Haas	C.T.P.#15 Blayne Hoffert

The leaderboard shows the closest-to-the-pin winners on the par 3 holes.