Team Ron takes the 2018 Woodring Cup

The 2018 Woodring Cup went to Team Ron over Team Woody, 191 points to 169 points. The matches were played October 6 and 7.

The Woodring Cup honors Ron Woodring, who lost his life in September 2017. Ron started the competition as the RCC Cup in 2010.

The participants raised more than $2,700 that will be donated to Children's Hospital of Philadelphia in Ron's name. The Woodring's grandson, Chase, was treated at CHoP in 2017. Chase has recovered and is back to playing golf and other sports.

Birdie Challenge

Ron and his wife, Geri, initiated the Birdie Challenge several years ago, pledged a donation for each birdie made during the RCC Cup. In that spirit, many of the golfers pledged donations for birdies during Saturday's play at this year's Woodring Cup.

The teams bagged a total of 48 birdies.

The teams gather before the start of Sunday's individual matches. The players are standing behind Ron Woodring's golf clubs.
