

Hass Defends RCC Super Senior Championship Title

July 23—2019... Mel Haas won his second consecutive RCC Super Senior championship with a sizzling 46-point performance in the second round. Mel defeated Bill Haas, no relation, by six points.

This marks the first year the tournament was played during the week. Previous tournaments were played concurrently with RCC's senior championship. The super senior championship is open to golfers age 65 and older.

The event concluded on July 23, the second round having been postponed from July 18 because of heavy rain.

Tom Leister took the second flight with 79 points while Ed Crowley's 84 points won the third flight.
